

AM and FM radio is nice, but doesn't work for me. XM radio works, and since it is by subscription, they should be able to broadcast what the subscribers want to hear. Plain and simple.
If AM and FM radio did that, there would be no need for satellite radio.